DIVISION MEMORANDUM
No. 355, s. 2025

October 2, 2025

REITERATION OF THE WARRANTY ONLINE FORM AND AFTER-SALES
SERVICE REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEPED COMPUTERIZATION PROGRAM
(DCP)

1. In reference to the attached OASICT Memorandum No. 092525-T3-2, dated September 25, 2025, from the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Information and Communications Technology, this Office reiterates the strict implementation of the warranty and after-sales service requirements under the DepEd Computerization Program (DCP).
2. All School Heads and Property Custodians are reminded of the following key provisions which apply to all DCP packages, including the most recent "eLearning Cart Package" and "Smart Package":
 - If a defective unit cannot be repaired within three (3) days, the supplier must provide a service unit of the same brand and specifications to avoid disruption of classes.
 - The defective unit must be replaced by the supplier within a maximum of seven (7) calendar days.
 - The service/replacement unit must be installed before the supplier pulls out the defective unit from the school.
3. To ensure proper documentation and swift resolution, all field offices must report warranty concerns by accomplishing the official online form found at: <http://tiny.cc/dcpWarrantyconcern>. Please provide complete and accurate details of the defective or damaged unit.
4. For immediate and widest dissemination and strict compliance.
